DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-26 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. The phrase "at least about" does not clearly claim Applicant's invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-8, 10-12, 16, and 18-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Banko (US 4,253,199) as disclosed by Applicant within the Information Disclosure Statement.

7. In reference to figure 5 and 7 Banko discloses an intraocular lens (IOL) comprising an optic (34) and an optic positioning member (31,32) wherein the positioning member extends around the optic to situate the optic in a location central to the anterior (31) and posterior (32) segments of the positioning member. Furthermore, the positioning members are responsive to ciliary body movement in order change the shape of the lens from a first shape to a second shape wherein the second shape has a greater thickness than the first shape (Col. 3, lines 32-37).
8. Banko further discloses a plurality of spaced-apart arms (76) which extend radially from the optic and are arcuate in cross-section and further contain sutures, which can be characterized as arms (35), radially extended in a straight line and connected to the legs at a bight (See Figure 7).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 9 13-15 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Banko in view of Stoy et al ("Stoy")(US 4,731,078).
11. Banko discloses an IOL as discussed supra, however Banko fails to specify the dimensions of the IOL. Stoy discloses an IOL comprising an index of refraction no greater than 1.35, a diopter value between 5 and 30, a thickness between 1 mm and 5 mm and a diameter between 6 mm and 9 mm (Col. 2, lines 50-57).

12. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to make an IOL with the dimensions of the Stoy device in order to provide optical values which are conducive to vision correction.
